

Normative Ethics and Welfare Economics

October 21-22, 2016

A conference on Normative Ethics and Welfare Economics will be held at Harvard Business School on October 21-22, 2016. Location: Room 201, Hawes Hall

The conference will bring together economists and philosophers to discuss normative issues at the boundary of the two disciplines. Presentations and discussions will be of broad interest to scholars in the social sciences and the humanities. We invite faculty members and graduate students with research interests in this area, as well as undergraduates and other interested scholars, to join us. For more information visit www.hbs.edu/faculty/conferences/2016-newe

Planned sessions include:

- Al Roth and Michael Sandel on the Boundaries of Markets
- Partha Dasgupta and Johann Frick on Population Ethics
- Matthew Adler and Hilary Greaves on Prioritarianism
- Rebecca Henderson, Karthik Ramanna, and Wayne Norman on Business Ethics
- A closing panel: Marc Fleurbaey, Dan Hausman, Greg Mankiw, and Tim Scanlon

We hope you can make it!
Itai Sher, UCSD economics
Matthew Weinzierl, HBS

Funded by the Division of Research and Faculty Development of Harvard Business School, the Harvard Foundations of Human Behavior Initiative, and the Harvard Philosophy department.

Normative Ethics and Welfare Economics

October 21-22, 2016