

The Analytic Tradition: A Celebration of the Work and Teaching of Warren Goldfarb

25 Quincy Street, Cambridge, MA - Emerson Hall 210

Friday, September 27

2:00pm - 3:00pm

Thomas Pendelbury (University of Chicago), "The Objects of Kant's Copernican Assumption"

3:15pm - 4:15pm

Sanford Shieh (Wesleyan University), "Yes and No in Wittgenstein's Tractatus"

4:30pm - 5:30pm

Alexander George (Amherst College), "The Indeterminacy of the Indeterminacy of Translation"

Saturday, September 28

10:00am - 11:00am

Sharon Berry (Indiana University Bloomington), "Multiverse Set Theory and Mathematical Explanations for Physical Facts"

11:00am - 12:00pm

Adam Leite (Indiana University Bloomington), "External World Skepticism and the Pre-Philosophical Position"

12:00pm - 1:30pm

Lunch in Robbins Library (Emerson 211)

1:30pm - 2:30pm

Steven Gross (Johns Hopkins University), "Perception and Iconicity"

2:45pm - 4:45pm

Roundtable: "The Future of Wittgenstein", Juliet Floyd (Boston University), James Shaw (University of Pittsburgh), and Ed Minar (University of Arkansas), with Gary Ebbs (Indiana University Bloomington) moderating

5:00pm

Reception in Robbins Library (Emerson 211)